WELCOME

We are excited to welcome you to #DouglassWeek 2022!

Frederick and Anna Douglass moved from Rochester, NY, to Washington, DC in 1872, and 150 years later #DouglassWeek 2022 will commemorate the importance of the Douglass family to the city and explore what their stories mean to contemporary issues of identity, race, independence and equal rights around the world.

As you will see, #DouglassWeek includes performances, creative installations and critical discussions. Once again, we are excited to partner with a wide network of Douglass scholars, historians and researchers, along with artists, musicians, poets, athletes, community groups and activists from around the world to bring you memorable and thought-provoking events and activities.

We are also thrilled to continue our relationships with many partners and supporters from #DouglassWeek2021 and feature many programs, events and ongoing projects in and around Cork and other cities in Ireland.

Explore our events below and please spread the word.

We look forward to seeing you soon!
